

Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Illinois

2815 West Washington Street | P.O. Box 19253 | Springfield, Illinois 62794-9253

Richard W. Ingram, Executive Director

<http://trs.illinois.gov>

(800) 877-7896 | for the hearing impaired: (866) 326-0087

News

For Immediate Release

August 8, 2013

Contact: Dave Urbanek
Public Information Officer

Office: 217-753-0968

Cell: 217-720-3961

durbanek@trs.illinois.gov

TRS TRUSTEE JANICE REEDUS RESIGNS

SPRINGFIELD, IL – Teachers' Retirement System Trustee Janice Reedus has resigned from the TRS Board of Trustees, Executive Director Dick Ingram announced today.

In a letter to Ingram dated August 6, 2013, Reedus said that other professional commitments had become too great for her to fulfill the duties and responsibilities of being a trustee.

“I am grateful for having had the opportunity to serve on the Board of this fine organization with such dedicated and talented individuals for the past four years,” Reedus said.

Reedus, of Indian Head Park, is the director of Business and Auxiliary Services at Joliet Junior College. She was first appointed to a four-year term on the 13-member TRS Board by Gov. Pat Quinn in June of 2009. She was reappointed to a second four-year term in 2012.

With the resignation of Reedus, two of the governor's six appointments to the TRS Board are vacant. No timetable has been established for naming a replacement to either seat.

###

About Teachers' Retirement System

The Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Illinois is the 39th largest pension system in the United States, and provides retirement, disability and survivor benefits to teachers, administrators and other public school personnel employed outside of Chicago. The System serves 366,000 members and had assets of $39.6 billion as of March 31, 2013.